Yes you can have an extra week. I would also ask the same for the second and third request for admissions.

I am working on getting you discovery in all three cases this week. I lost a couple weeks when I moved from my office to my house just getting everything packed up and unpacked.

Delaney Yonchek provided me with documents subject to the subpoena. I have to organize them and get them to you. Can you give me until Friday on that and the second and third request for admissions.

I have no spoken to Mathew Ebert regarding the documents subject to the subpoena but I will and send an update by tomorrow.
